

Vacancy in FWF's Impact Team

Fair Wear Foundation (FWF) is an Amsterdam-based, international non-profit organisation working to improve labour conditions in garment factories supply chains worldwide. To support ongoing and emerging activities, FWF is looking for a

Fundraising Officer (32 hrs/week)

The Fundraising Officer will take the lead in the development of funding policy and writing proposals to major donors, in support of FWF's operations, which take place primarily in Europe and Asia. The position will be located in FWF's Impact Team, and the Fundraising Officer will liaise closely with other staff members and partner organisations.

Responsibilities:

- Contributing to the development of FWF's future funding strategy;
- Identifying funding opportunities;
- Writing concept notes and full funding proposals in support of FWF's activities;
- Supporting senior staff in discussions with potential donors.

Required qualifications and skills:

- A successful track record in writing proposals to major European and international public and private (foundation) donors;
- Experienced with the design of large, complex, multi-year proposals (> € 1 million with multiple partners and multi-site implementation);
- Knowledge of the main development aid funding sources;
- Ability to think strategically and align funding strategy to policy goals;
- > 7 years of relevant experience;
- University degree;
- Fluent written and spoken English;
- Outstanding interpersonal and communication skills, including the ability to translate the needs of content specialists into high-quality funding proposals.

Desired additional qualifications and skills:

- Familiarity with the garment industry, international supply chains, and/or labour rights;
